

What's UP at IH Malta-Gozo

New self-study area, read on....

Monday 27th June marked the opening of a new self-study area at INTERNATIONAL HOUSE Malta-Gozo. With 4 PCs equipped with self-study programmes like NETLANGUAGES.COM and seating ideal for relaxation and reading, this area has been an instant success.

Besides continuing their English language learning, students can make use of the PC for internet browsing. Besides the self-study area students can make use of PCs in each classroom at INTERNATIONAL HOUSE ST.JULIANS.

Outside the self-study area students can make use of an iPad located in the reception area to check the latest news around the world, the weather or their Facebook, perhaps!

When asked to comment on the latest additions, Managing Director, Mr.Costantino Mifsud said 'our objective is to make the students feel at home while studying with us and we are continuously try to add more services and perks to our already impressive list'.

Some of the services offered to students are:

- Free Monday pick-up service from their accommodation
- Free water, tea and coffee
- Free internet and wi-fi
- Free 30 minutes' one-to- one tutorial with their teacher during the first week
- Free graduation photo
